

BY-LAWS OF THE COTSWOLD BREEDERS ASSOCIATION

PURPOSE

The Cotswold Breeders Association is an organization to preserve and promote the breed, provide registration for all purebred Cotswolds and provide information and support for mutual benefit of all members and breeders.

This purpose will be accomplished through working by-laws of the organization, development of breed standards and networking with membership and the sheep industry.

ARTICLE I OFFICE

1. Principal Office

The principal office of the association is hereby fixed and located in Manchester, Maryland. The Board of Directors is hereby granted full power and authority to change said principal office from one location to another. Any such change shall be noted by the Board of Directors but shall not be considered an amendment of these By-Laws.

2. Other Offices

The corporation may maintain other offices either within or without of the State of Arizona as determined by the Board of Directors, where all business of the corporation shall be transacted.

ARTICLE II MEMBERSHIP

1. Annual meetings

The annual meeting of the members is to be held in conjunction with the National Cotswold Breeders Association Show. The next annual Cotswold Breeders Association Annual Meeting and Show shall be determined by the Board of Directors, with input from the membership, and announced at the current meeting.

All meetings shall be conducted according to Roberts Rules of Order. This shall govern all meetings of the association, except in instances of conflict between said Rules of Order, Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws of the Association or provision of law.

2. Special Meetings

Special meetings of the members may be called by the President or by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

3. Notice of Special Meetings

The Secretary shall give or cause to be given written notice of the time, place and purpose of holding each special meeting to each member at the respective address of said members as they appear on the records of the corporation.

4. Membership Dues

Regular Member	$20.00 per year
Associate Member	$10.00 per year
Junior Member	$ 5 .00 per year
Honorary Member	$ 0.00 per year

Membership is allowed one vote to enterprise or individual. Juniors, Associate, and Honorary Members are non-voting. A member may have Junior status until the first January 1 after their 19th birthday, after which they must pay the Regular Membership fee ($20) and have the right to vote, but would have Association permission to show in sanctioned shows as Juniors up to their 22nd birthday.

5. Annual Membership

Membership is from January 1st to December 31.

Dues must be paid annually and are due on January 1 of each year.

6. Privileges of Regular, Junior, Associate and Honorary members

Regular Members	Entitled to hold office and actively participate on committees. – Must be 19 as of January 1 st .
Associates	Shall be entitled to attend meetings and actively participate on committees
Juniors	Shall be entitled to attend meetings and actively participate on committees
Honorary	Shall be entitled to attend meetings
All members	Shall be entitled to receive the official publication

All juniors that are regular members as of January 1, 2009 (date) are grandfathered in as regular members.

7. Voting rights

Voting rights will include those members whose dues for the fiscal year are paid.

There shall be voting by proxy, in person or mail. Only members who are in good standing as defined in Sections 2.4, 2.5, 2.6 are entitled to vote. A partnership, corporation or estate may designate some officer or manager to vote for the entity.

A prospective member shall complete an application for membership on a form provided by the association and pay the annual membership fee for the current fiscal year.

8. Termination of Membership

A membership shall terminate upon death, resignation, or when the member is no longer a Cotswold sheep owner.

a. A membership cannot be transferred. Exception: A Regular or Junior Member has the right to change their Membership to Associate when they are no longer a Cotswold sheep owner for the remainder of the current year.

b. All rights and privileges of membership shall cease upon termination of membership. In the event of nonpayment of dues as of January 1 of each year, a delinquent dues notice shall be mailed to the Member, Junior Member and Associate Member at his or her address as shown on the records of the association. If the dues are not received by March 1, the member shall be automatically dropped from the membership roll.

d. Membership of a dropped member may be renewed by the filing of an application as in the case of a new member.

9. Quorum

At any meeting of the membership, the holders of a majority shall constitute a quorum for all purposes, unless the representation of a larger group shall be required by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these By-Laws, and in that case the representation of the number so required shall constitute a quorum.

10. Registration

a. The Cotswold Breeders Association maintains permanent records of registrations and transfers of Cotswold Sheep. Before any lamb is registered, the application for registration is checked through the records to insure that it is correct. Incomplete, incorrect, and illegible applications may be returned. Only animals whose sires and dams are registered may apply for registration. Application for registration of animals should be presented to the Registrar on forms provided. Applications for Registration blanks are sent to breeders free of charge upon request. The appropriate fee should be sent with the registration request. Each breeder may permanently identify each animal by eartag system and CBA strongly encourages a double ID system since eartags can often be lost. Canadian breeders may transfer or apply for new registrations into the Cotswold Breeders Association flock book with an extended pedigree from the Canadian Registry.

b. Cotswolds Registered in recognized American, Canadian, and English Cotswold Societies may be registered with a copy of the registration certificate.

c. The symbols "AI" (Artificially Inseminated) or "ET" Embryo Transfer) must be designated on the registration Application and be reflected on the registration papers.

d. Complete registration or transfer applications may take up to four weeks. Rush paper work may take up to one and a half weeks. Rush orders must include a pre paid overnight envelope. Outside of envelope to Registrar must be marked "rush".

e. Association Fees shall be set by the Board of Directors. Fees shall be on the application and printed on each edition of the Newsletter and on the web site.
