C. Activities

Submit a typed brief summary or listing of your activities, not to exceed two pages that covers, in order, these four areas:

- Current school and community activities
- FFA, 4-H or other agriculture related activities and achievements
- Your involvement/activities as a junior Cotswold breeder
- Describe how you can contribute to the Cotswold Breeders Association as an Ambassador. Provide examples of skills that you possess which will bring positive influences to the National Ambassador program.
- A letter of recommendation along with the evaluation form from your 4-H Leader, Vo-Ag Instructor, or Academic Advisor must be returned with this application in a sealed envelope or mailed directly to Butch Watson.

National Ambassador Qualifications

- Membership of the Junior Cotswold Breeders Association
- Age 14-21 as of January 1 of the current year
- Terms are two years with a limit of two terms
- Candidate must be available for a phone interview if requested by interview committee
- Application must be submitted by e-mail no later April 15 or postmarked by April 15

E. Responsibilities

- Be able to check e-mail and respond in a timely fashion to the ambassador team
- Ambassadors must plan their travel responsibilities so that there are at least two ambassadors present at each national event (i.e. NAILE, All-American, National Jr. Show).
- Minimum travel requirement is to represent the JCBA at one national event (NAILE, All-American, or National Jr. Show) and two events in your region (for example: state fairs, state or regional preview shows, sheep festivals, or events deemed by the CBA).
- With the help of fellow ambassadors, strive to develop communication skills. Possible ways in which to do this are to prepare visual displays, plan and lead youth activities, write articles for regional or livestock publications, submit photos, or network with junior members.
- Complete projects and serve in roles agreed upon by the ambassador team and JCBA officers.

F. Code of Conduct

- Be dedicated and committed to the JCBA and the programs and policies
- Serve as a member of the team, always maintain a cooperative attitude
- Maintain proper dress and good grooming for all occasions
- Forego use of alcohol, tobacco, and illegal substances at all times during any JCBA, CBA, or industry related events.

I have completed parts A, B. and C of application. My parent/guardian and I have read parts D through F and understand that an ambassador may be removed from service for violating the Code of Conduct.
